Everyone receiving an income is required to file a tax return (self assessment) the year after the income year. The income year is the year in which the income (e.g. wages or pensions) is paid out and your employer – or whoever pays out your pension – makes a tax deduction for it.

At the beginning of April, the Tax Agency will send you:

- A tax return form
Everyone required to declare income will receive a tax return form, 'Inkomstdeklaration'. Many particulars on the form have already been filled in by the Tax Agency (Skatteverket).
- An income specification
This is a list itemising the income statements (kontrolluppgifter) sent to both you and the Tax Agency.
- A preliminary tax estimate
You will also get a preliminary estimate of your tax. It will be based on the information the Tax Agency has filled in on your tax return.
- Payment slips
In addition, you will be sent tax payment slips that you can use if you need to pay more tax.

Declare your income on the Internet or by phone

Most taxpayers can file their tax returns on the Internet. Visit www.skatteverket.se to find out who can use this service and how to proceed it.

To file your tax return on the Internet you go into www.skatteverket.se (E-tjänster → Inkomstdeklaration).

If you don't need to make any changes, you can approve your income tax return by telephone (020-567 100) or via sms (711 44).

Last day!
2 May
by 24.00

If 2 May is a Saturday or Sunday, tax returns must be submitted by Monday at the latest.

Tax refund

If you are salaried or a pensioner you can receive your tax refund by June. But to do this you must

- file your tax return via the Internet, phone or sms and
- have specified a bank account for refund of tax.

Everyone has a tax account

The tax account provided by the Tax Agency shows your preliminary tax figure based on income statements as well as your own tax payments, your final tax figure and other details.
